A Story from the Pier. [Special dispatch to the Washington Post.] NARRAGANSETT PIER, August 10 .- The summer residents of this fashionable watering-place are in a quiver of excitement over the alleged fistic encounter between Senator Conkling and Governor Sprague. How much truth there is in the report it is very difficult to ascertain, for every one questioned professes entire ignorance, or absolutely refuses to talk. One story is as follows: Governor Sprague and family octhis summer, as in years past, and are enwhich the residence affords. It is stated that for a few days past the Governor had been absent on business, and upon his return he found Senator Conking a guest at his house, having heen there, so it is understood, quite a number of days, and of course without his knowledge or consent. Report has it that the Governor waxed very angry and ordered the Senator out, but that Roscoe refused to go. Words came thick and fast, and it is alleged the Governor told Conkling he had seen all of him he cared to in Washington, and would have nothing more to do with him, and again ordered him out of the house. The month of July opened with a market deidedly better for all classes, particularly working obaccos, and continued so up to the past ten days chen a decided tendency to weaken was manufastal, and the 1st of August found these classes, hereofore so much improved, decidedly lower than when last reported. This is in a great measure to e attributed to the recent rains and the yell aw-feer South. The receipts have somewhat fallen off, but breaks continue heavy, principally export goods, Shipneeds are largely on the increase, and will so con-

DURE CANDIES.—I am manufacturing daily my infimitable pure crushed sugar CLAR-IFIED FLINT CANDIES. I make better CANDIES for wholesale purposes than any boase in this country—warranted perfectly pure and no adulterations. We don't use any guess grape-sugar, tara-alba—nothing but pure sugars; it is more highly alba—nothing but pure and is more highly alba—nothing but pure and
